

Professional Educators of Iowa - 2018 Annual Legislative Survey Results

1 Before the recertification elections last October, the Public Employee Relations Board (PERB) provided the unions with the names and contact information of all public employees eligible to vote. Should your professional and personal contact information be shared with union officials?

2 How much of your own money have you spent for classroom/student supplies in the last year?

3 Over the past year, we have received reports of harassment in the work place. Have you personally experienced or witnessed harassment in your school in the past year?

4 Over the past year, we have received increasing reports of student violence in the classroom. Have you personally experienced or witnessed violence in your school in the past year?

5 If your school held a recertification election in 2017, what is your perception of the emails, phone calls, text messages, and visits concerning your vote?

6 Many states do not require teachers to take college or recertification credits for relicensure. Instead, they require a set number of hours, often 150 seat hour, of Professional Development, which can be earned through school PD meetings, classes, online seminars, and attendance at workshops and conferences. Concerning teacher relicensure:

7 In many states, teachers with a Master's Degree are not required to take further training or credits to maintain their teaching license. Should teachers who have earned a Master's Degree be required to earn additional credits for relicensure?

8 If the Iowa Legislature does not fully fund the new annual assessments, should the Department of Education have the right to authorize testing companies to individually bill the school?

9 Some school districts have shared items such as Letters of Reprimand, or Assistance Plans with local and regional union officials without regard to the wishes or membership of the teacher. Should the sharing of your personnel file items be allowed without your permission?

10 Is the current Instructional Coaching program improving education in your school district?

11 Please choose the 3 most pressing issues facing your school today.
